BRIDPORT MELODY MAKERS

Melody Makers attended their Christmas break-up at the Lilydale Bowls Club. It gave us all a chance to catch-up and really relax.

Lots of Christmas songs, laughter, and lovely foods to enjoy.

Thank you to the Lilydale Bowls Club for allowing us the use of their facilities.

We look forward to seeing new faces in the New Year.

HAPPY NEW YEAR to one and all.

May you keep well and BE SAFE.

COMMUNITY NEWS

COAST CARE UPDATE

The January working bee will be held on Sunday the 19th. We will continue work on the removal of weeds and rubbish in the wetland behind Adams Beach. We will be concentrating on the removal of thistles so a hoe or a spade would be useful.

Meet at the Granite Point car park 9am.

This is part of the local attractions that bring visitors to the local area so the best presentation of these areas is always the objective.

Visitors are welcome to join the activity.

New members are always welcome.

UPDATE FROM THE MEN'S SHED

HAPPY NEW YEAR FROM UP HERE ON THE HILL

This year we have opted for an Australia Day raffle. It will include Peter Edson made garden seats and a voucher. If you see us sitting with the books please stop and buy some tickets and encourage others too as well.

Most days there is someone up at the shed busy with some form of activity so why not drop in for a chat and a coffee or give me a ring.

THE NORTH EAST FIELD NATURALISTS CLUB

With increasing emphasis on nature and the environment why not encourage young family members to join the North East Field Naturalists Club and learn about the local flora and fauna. Once a month they venture into the wilderness to view what is growing and living in the area. Below are some of the interesting photographs we have been privileged to publish. Can you identify the exhibits below?
